

STAND 530

BBC Worldwide
 product.licensing@bbc.com
 www.bbcworldwide.com

BBC Worldwide, the commercial subsidiary of the BBC, manages the corporation’s commercial activities including programme sales, digital channels, magazines, consumer products and new media. The Licensing Division licences both BBC and independent productions including children’s characters and adult/family TV brands.

In The Night Garden

In the Night Garden is a phenomenal, multi award-winning hit around the world. With its charm and loveable range of characters, the success continues. It has been sold to over 30 territories worldwide including Australia, Canada, Spain, France, Scandinavia and Holland.

Doctor Who

The amazing success of Doctor Who continues to build for 2010. Appealing to both young and old, and regularly brining in massive audiences, (Series 4 averaged 9.4 million viewers), Doctor Who has firmly established itself with a mix of adventure, epic storylines, scary monsters and great writing.

Top Gear

Top Gear is the World’s biggest and most popular motoring entertainment show in the history of TB and is now broadcast in over 100 countries worldwide. As well as being the UK’s biggest selling motoring magazine, it has also spawned 23 licensed international editions.

3rd & Bird!

3rd & Bird! is an animated preschool series about a community of birds that live, learn and play in the branches of a beautiful old tree. The vibrant treetop community of 3rd & Bird! is always alive with singing, whistling and dancing!

Dirtgirlword

Dirtgirlworld, a new, animated preschool series about engaging and educating our audience to care for the natural world, entertaining and teaching the next generation to nurture and tend our planet. It is a place where we learn to protect the things we love.